

Whether your child is 4 or 14, it's good to think about the future...

Transition Planning & the IEP Through the Doorway to Adult Life

Tuesday, December 6, 7 - 9 p.m.
(also offered December 13, 9 - 11 a.m.)

Special School District Central Office, Room 61
12110 Clayton Road (just east of Ballas Road, south of Highway 40)

Presented by Joann Noll, SSD Parent Education & Diversity Awareness

This parent workshop will focus on the steps parents and students need to consider as they plan for the last years of school and the transition to adult life. Personal futures planning and IEPs with transitional goals and action plans will be presented, as well as resources for planning for post-secondary education, supported employment and living, working with the adult service system, and funding through St. Louis Regional Office, Vocational Rehabilitation and Social Security.
